Not immediately, I am going through emails and voice mails making my list. But, my first thought is if Jill is not paying for bonds annually, they likely have expired or are not in force. If we don't have copies of the bonds we need copies to verify they are still in effect.

Thank you So. I took a quick look at these but what would be most helpful is if there is a list of what the City requires at this time (as it seems most of the bonding was done and work completed for a majority of the project). Do you have a list of what is needed now to meet our conditions?

Thanks,
Jill
